Office of the Speaker Announces New Capital Projects Hire

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz — The Office of the Speaker announces the hire of Sherylene Yazzie in the position of legislative staff assistant. She will cover capital project development for Navajo, federal, and state partner agencies.

Sherylene joins the Office of the Speaker from the Navajo Nation Division of Community Development, where she served as the department manager for the Capital Projects Management Department. Her experience includes managing capital projects with all 110 chapters and coordinating with external agencies from three states and the federal government.

Originally from Coyote Canyon, NM, Sherylene holds a B.A. from Prescott College in Environmental Studies with a Minor in Sustainable Community Development and an M.B.A. from the University of Phoenix.
