WINTER COUNCIL SESSION - JANUARY 2017

Council supports funding for pilot project to construct 10 homes in the Former Bennett Freeze Area

By Jolene Holgate

On January 25, during the third day of the 2017 Winter Council Session, the Navajo Nation Council approved Legislation No. 0001-17, which would provide approximately $255,000 from the Unreserved, Undesignated Fund Balance to carry out a pilot project to construct 10 homes in the Former Bennett Freeze Area, if signed into law by President Russell Begaye.

Legislation sponsor Council Delegate Tuchoney Slim, Jr. (Bodaway/Gap, Coppermine, K'ai'biit'ó, LeCh-ee, Tonalea/Red Lake), along with the Tonalea Community Development Committee and representatives from the Tonalea Chapter, presented a proposal outlining a proposed project that would begin housing construction in the FBFA.

"We have spent a lot of time planning on how we can get our leaders to begin helping with the Former Bennett Freeze Area. It is our goal to bring our people back and change the life of the children in that area," said Delegate Slim. "For far too long our people have suffered in that area and they have been waiting

Council supports the increase of qualification standards for NHA Board of Commission members

By Jared Touchin

Prior to completing its agenda for the 2017 Winter Council Session on January 26, the Navajo Nation Council approved Legislation No. 0402-16, which seeks to amend Title 6 of the Navajo Nation Code to lower the number of Navajo Housing Authority Board of Commissioners from eight to five members, to change the qualification criteria for board members, and to create and nomination committee to select potential board members.

President Russell Begaye will have 10 calendar days to consider the Council resolution once it is sent to the Office of the President and Vice President for consideration.

Council Delegate Alton Joe Shepherd (Jeddi-to, Cornfields, Ganado, Kin Dah Lichíí, Steamboat) said he sponsored the legislation as a means to improve the management of NHA and to allow the enterprise to make progress by improving qualification criteria.

"Management is important for setting fundamental direction for NHA. By requiring members to have professional experience and backgrounds pro-patiently for the Navajo Nation to help them.”

Delegate Slim stressed that constructing the houses would encourage Navajo people to return home to their community and begin increasing economic development.

Cindy S. Covey, TCDC chair, said the community has worked for over a year on the proposal to provide new homes to FBFA residents who reside in unsafe, dilapidated homes, and urged Council to support the legislation because it would “return dignity back to the community members.”

“This project is so important to our Navajo people in the FBFA—it’s an emotional issue. I want the 23rd Navajo Nation Council to go down in history as the leaders that changed the lives for the people in this area,” said Covey.

In 1966, commissioner of the Bureau of Indian Affairs Robert Bennett ceased development of approximately 1.6 million acres of land that was in dispute by the Navajo Nation and Hopi Tribe, which prohibited Navajo families from making any improvements to their homes or to construct new homes in the area for nearly 50 years.

Congress passed the Navajo-Hopi Settlement Act and in 2009, and former U.S. President Barack Obama officially lifted the freeze on development in the area, allowing for residents to begin constructing and rehabilitating homes and facilities.

The legislation initially sought $543,000, however, Council Delegate Dwight Witherspoon (Black Mesa, Forest Lake, Hardrock, Pinon, Whippoorwill) informed Council that 65-percent of the project’s funding would come from the chapter and other outside sources, and that Council would only need to fund the difference.

He then proposed an amendment to reduce the amount from $543,000 to $255,000. Council members voted 15-3 to approve the amendment.

Council Delegate Tom Chee (Shiprock) commended the TCDC and chapter for developing a comprehensive proposal that illustrates that the community is eager to move forward with their own solutions.

“They took the initiative upon themselves and said ‘this is how it should be done.’ There is nothing like building your own home, creating your own cornfield, and nothing like educating yourself out of your own pocket. That is the best thing you can give to the next generation—to be a self-supporting individual,” said Delegate Chee.

Covey said one of the primary purposes is to ensure that the homes being built are up to standard and are suitable for families. The proposal states that if the project proves successful, TCDC would seek to begin constructing nearly 450 additional homes throughout the FBFA.

Council Delegate Leonard Tsosie (Baca/Prewitt, Casamero Lake, Counselor, Littlewater, Ojo Encino, Pueblo Pintado, Torreon, Whitehorse Lake) said he supported the housing initiative, but cautioned his Council colleagues in using the UUFBA rather than holding the Navajo Housing Authority accountable for addressing housing needs.

“[The NHA], that is where the money is if you want to help this group of people. Yet we are getting the Navajo Nation in trouble and we’re leaving NHA alone. The answer is to take the [Tribally Designated Housing Entity] back from them, redo the Indian housing plan, and give them their full funding. That’s holding NHA accountable,” said Delegate Tsosie.

Council members voted 16-2 to approve Legislation No. 0001-17 with one amendment. President Russell Begaye will have 10 calendar days to consider the resolution once it is sent to the Office of the President and Vice President.

vides an avenue to bring home our young Navajo professionals to help NHA,” added Delegate Shepherd, who serves as the chair of the Resources and Development Committee that serves as the oversight authority for NHA.

The current criteria only requires the members to have some formal education or three years of leadership experience in a local unit of government, in addition to having the members reside in certain states and agencies. Residential requirements and agency representation would no longer be part of the criteria with the amended language.

The amended language calls for one member of the board to be a Certified Public Accountant, Chartered Financial Analyst, or accountant; one member to be a Registered Architect or licensed Professional Engineer; one member to have construction management or engineering or business management or Indian housing or federal housing field experience.

The resolution also restricts all Council members and former NHA employees, who worked for NHA within the past three years, from serving as board members. Two members would represent the tenants and homebuyers participating in programs administered by NHA.

Additionally, all commissioners would be required to have post-high school education and employment experience in business operations, architecture, construction management, finance, accounting, investing, or in other specialized areas of construction or business that correspond to the activities or anticipated activities of NHA.

If signed into law, the resolution would also create a nomination committee composed of the president, speaker, and a Resources and Development Committee designee, who would then be confirmed by the Naabik’iyáti’ Committee.

Council members voted 11-8 to approve the legislation. President Russell Begaye will have 10 calendar days to consider the Council resolution once it is sent to the Office of the President and Vice President for consideration.

Navajo Nation Council votes to extend timeline for the Transportation Stimulus Plan referendum

By Jared Touchin

During the fourth and final day of the Winter Council Session on January 26, members of the Navajo Nation Council voted to approve Legislation No. 0005-17, which would amend the Transportation Stimulus

Plan referendum measure by extending the deadline to hold a special election to allow registered Navajo voters to decide whether or not to use approximately $216 million from the Permanent Trust Fund principle for road improvements throughout the Navajo Nation.

The Council approved the referendum measure on October 27, which became law after President Russell Begaye did not take action within the 10-cal-

Commencement of the 2017 Winter Council Session celebrates the accomplishments of Navajo mechanical engineer and police officer

By Jolene Holgate

On the first day of the 2017 Winter Council Session, the 23rd Navajo Nation Council opened the session with the recognition of two Navajo individuals for their outstanding accomplishments that benefit the Navajo Nation.

Council Delegate Jonathan Hale (Oak Springs, St. Michaels) presented the first recognition award to Aaron Yazzie, a mechanical engineer with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Jet Propulsion Laboratory.

"Here is a young Navajo man who took his education seriously and made his goals a reality. He has a career in a very difficult field and works for one of the most renowned organizations in the world—NASA," said Delegate Hale. "This is the path we set for our young people and we are very proud of him as a Nation."

Yazzie graduated from Holbrook High School in 2004 and graduated from Stanford University in 2008 receiving his Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering. He was also a recipient of the 2008 Stanford School of Engineering Dean's Leadership Award.

"I am really happy to be here representing STEM education and higher education for the Navajo people. It is very important to me. I have been helped a lot by the programs offered by the Navajo Nation and I was able to go on and get a career," said Yazzie. "I want to thank our leaders for all that they do here in supporting our youth and their education. I thank you for what you have done for me."

Yazzie's parents are Kee and Shirley Yazzie, and he was raised in Holbrook, Arizona. His maternal clan is Áshjìhí (Salt Clan), and born for Tódích'íí'nii (Bitter Water Clan). His maternal grandfather's clan is Kinyaa'áanii (Towering House) and his paternal grandfather's clan is Tó'áhání (Near The Water Clan).

Council Delegate Edmund Yazzie (Churchrock, Iyanbito, Mariano Lake, Pinedale, Smith Lake, Thoreau) presented the second recognition award to Navajo Nation Police Officer Eric Williams, who recently responded to a suicide call in the community of Oak Springs and was able to save the life of an individual who attempted to end their life.

"I want to recognize Officer Williams on behalf of the Law and Order Committee. Their job is very stressful and we do not take their service for granted," said Delegate Yazzie. "Officer Williams saved a life, and life is very precious. Because of Officer Williams's fast thinking, this individual is still with us," said Delegate Yazzie.

Officer Williams has been with the Navajo Nation Police Department for nearly 12 years and serves in the Window Rock Police District. He is originally from the community of Fort Defiance, Arizona.

He is a member of the Navajo Nation Police Department's Strategic Reaction Team, is a Field Training Officer, and a hostage negotiator with specialized tactical skills to aid in high-risk and high-stress level situations.

"The high level of skills that Officer Williams' possesses contributed to the positive outcome of the situation he was faced with, and we as Nation should never take our law enforcement for granted. We are beyond thankful for their service," said Delegate Yazzie.

In addition to the recognitions, various youth and students participated in the opening day activities. The Chinle High School Army Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC) posted colors, while Miss Navajo Nation Ronda Joe performed the National Anthem in the Navajo language.

Fort Defiance Head Start students provided the Pledge of Allegiance, and performed a variety of Navajo songs. Rita Gilmore, a traditional Navajo practitioner from the Navajo Department of Behavioral Health Services provided the opening day prayer.

Navajo Nation Council confirms the permanent appointment of Cynthia Thompson as District Court Judge

By Jared Touchin

On January 26, with a vote of 15-1, the Navajo Nation Council confirmed the permanent appointment of Cynthia Thompson, who is originally from the community of Del Muerto located near Chinle, to serve as a Navajo Nation District Court Judge.

Council Delegate Kee Allen Begay, Jr. (Low Mountain, Many Farms, Nazlini, Tachee/Blue Gap, Tselani/Cottonwood) sponsored Legislation No. 0006-17,

which sought the permanent appointment based on a recommendation issued by the Law and Order Committee through a resolution passed in September 2015.

Navajo Nation Council approves $242,000 for chapters to provide emergency response services

By Crystalyne Curley

On the third day of the 2017 Winter Council Session on January 25, the Navajo Nation Council approved Legislation No. 0038-17, an emergency bill to provide approximately $242,000 in supplemental funding from the Minimum Fund Balance for 33 Navajo chapters for emergency response services due to recent heavy snow. The resolution will be sent to the Office of the President and Vice President for consideration.

Council Delegate Seth Damon (Bááháálí, Chichiltah, Manuelito, Tsé Lichíí, Rock Springs, Tsayatoh) introduced the emergency legislation on Wednesday, after Council Delegate Benjamin L. Bennett (Crystal, Fort Defiance, Red Lake, Sawmill) reported to the Council that the Commission on Emergency Management had approved a resolution to declare a state of emergency due to recent winter storms. Delegate Bennett serves as a voting member on the commission.

“Currently, there are 33 chapters that have less than $10,000 for emergency services. The funding will allow the 33 chapters to help their community members. I ask that we move on this quickly,” stated Delegate Damon, who also urged President Russell Begaye to approve the resolution as quickly as possible in order to get the funding to the chapters as soon as possible.

According to the Navajo Nation Office of the Auditor General, as of Sept. 2016, the Nation’s 110 chapters had a total of $3.4 million in emergency funds, however the 33 chapters each had less than $10,000 with many having a zero balance.

The emergency declaration directs responsible Navajo Nation entities to immediately begin coordinating resources to meet the needs of all communities and activate emergency funds for personnel and equipment to restore and main infrastructure.

The Council also approved an amendment proposed by Council Delegate Leonard Tsosie (Baca/Prewitt, Casamero Lake, Counselor, Littlewater, Ojo Encino, Pueblo Pintado, Torreon, Whitehorse Lake) that would restrict chapters from utilizing the funds for any other purposes besides emergency response services.

“The money should be only be used for emergency services and relief. We can’t allow chapters to begin transferring the funds to travel, pay utilities, or other non-emergency expenses. We need to keep the chapters accountable,” stated Delegate Tsosie.

Council Delegate Walter Phelps (Cameron, Coalmine Canyon, Leupp, Tolani Lake, Tsidi To ii) urged his Council colleagues to support the legislation to help chapters and reminded them that the funds may possibly be reimbursed to the Navajo Nation through a process under the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

According to the Navajo Nation Department of Emergency Management executive director Harlan Cleveland, chapters may receive reimbursements through FEMA if emergency funds are used in accordance with the guidelines and policies of FEMA.

dar day timeframe, in accordance with Navajo Nation law.

During the discussion, legislation sponsor Council Delegate Lee Jack, Sr. (Dilkon, Greasewood Springs, Indian Wells, Teesto, Whitecone) explained that the extension is necessary to allow additional time to secure funding for the Navajo Election Administration to hold the special election.

In September, the Council approved funding to hold the referendum, which was included in the Comprehensive Budget, and again in November when the Council amended the Comprehensive Budget – on both occasions, President Begaye used the presidential line item authority to deny the funds.

Council Delegate Walter Phelps (Cameron, Coalmine Canyon, Leupp, Tolani Lake, Tsidi To ii), who sponsored the referendum legislation in October, urged the Council to approve the extension to provide a “legislative fix” in regards to the mandated timeline associated with all referendum measures.

The Navajo Election Code requires referendums to be held no sooner than 60 days and no later than 90 days following the passage of the resolution referring the enactment. The new language approved by the Council would postpone the referendum election until funds for the election are secured. If funds are secured, the election would be held no sooner than 60 days and no later than 90 days of the approval of funds.

Navajo Nation law would require two-thirds approval of voters who cast a ballot in the proposed referendum, in order to utilize the funds from the Permanent Trust Fund. The Transportation Stimulus Plan would provide 20-miles of non-paved road improvements in each of the 24 legislative districts, if approved by voters.

The Council voted 13-3 on Thursday to approved Legislation No. 0005-17, which will be sent to the Office of the President and Vice President for consideration.

The Council also considered a separate legislation that seeks to secure funding from the Navajo Nation’s Unreserved, Undesignated Fund Balance in the amount of $248,000 for the Navajo Election Administration to conduct the referendum election.

Council Delegate Raymond Smith, Jr. (Houck, Klagetoh, Nahata Dził, Tsé Si áni, Wide Ruins) raised questions and concerns over certain amounts contained in the budget forms attached to the legislation specifically pertaining to standard mileage rate that changed with the start of the new year, and requested that revised forms be included to reflect the new rate.

The Council voted 15-1 to table Legislation No. 0431-16 until the next session.

LoRenzo Bates re-elected to serve second term as Speaker of the 23rd Navajo Nation Council

By Jared Touchin

As the first order of business during the opening day of the Winter Council Session, the 23rd Navajo Nation Council re-elected Speaker LoRenzo Bates (Nenahnezad, Newcomb, San Juan, Tiis Tsoh Sikaad, Tse'Daa'Kaan, Upper Fruitland) to serve a second two-year term as the Speaker.

"I am honored and thankful to my Council colleagues for their support and I look forward to serving the Council and all of our Diné Citizens for two more years in this capacity," said Speaker Bates, who took the oath of office administered by acting Chief Justice Allen Sloan.

The selection of the Speaker began with open nominations, which allowed an unlimited number of nominees to be considered for the position. The nominees included Council Delegate Otto Tso (Tó Nanees Dizi) and Speaker Bates.

Council Delegate Kee Allen Begay, Jr. (Low Mountain, Many Farms, Nazlini, Tachee/Blue Gap, Tselani/Cottonwood) was also nominated, however, he declined the nomination citing the need to continue focusing on serving as the chair of the Council's State Task Force, serving his five chapters, and the Law and Order Committee.

Delegate Tso and Speaker Bates were then provided 15 minutes each to present their platform to the 24-member Council. Delegate Tso received (6) six supporting votes, while Speaker Bates received (16) sixteen supporting votes to secure his second term as Speaker of the Council.

Delegate Tso's platform centered on the need to uphold and promote traditional and cultural aspects of leadership and to work and communicate more closely with chapters and the five Navajo agencies across the Navajo Nation.

Speaker Bates presented a platform centered on the accomplishments of the current Council including the approval of the largest spending packages in the history of the Navajo government totaling over $330 million for water infrastructure projects, economic development projects, community development, and agricultural projects.

He also emphasized the need for the Council to stay the course on its ongoing initiatives including the negotiation of an amended gaming compact with the state of Arizona, the settlement of water rights for the Little Colorado River, the ongoing implementation of water infrastructure projects, and several others.

Following the swearing-in, Speaker Bates said he is confident that the Council will move forward together with ongoing initiatives to help the Navajo Nation which includes our elders, youth, veterans, and

Committee has made the appointment of probationary and permanent judges a top priority in order to fill vacant positions that often hinder the progress and work of the Navajo Nation's 13 Judicial Districts.

Acting Chief Justice Allen Sloan, who joined Delegate Begay and Thompson as they presented the legislation before Council, also issued a favorable recommendation for the permanent appointment and asked for the Council's support. He also noted that the Navajo Nation has a total of 17 judge positions, however, only 11 are currently filled including Thompson's position.

Speaking in the Navajo language, Thompson said that she sees the position as a way of giving back to the Navajo people and helping communities. She added that her years of working as a probationary judge and working with schools and community members have provided her with an understanding of the struggles, obstacles, and issues that affect the Navajo people.

Thompson also stressed the importance of viewing issues from a traditional perspective while upholding the laws of the Navajo Nation.

In accordance with Title 7 of the Navajo Nation Code, Thompson was required to serve a two-year probationary period as a Navajo Nation judge. She has served with the Dilkon Judicial District since October 2014.

LOC chair Council Delegate Edmund Yazzie (Churchrock, Iyanbito, Mariano Lake, Pinedale, Smith Lake, Thoreau) and other LOC members joined Thompson as she was sworn-in by acting Chief Justice Sloan following the Council's approval of the legislation.

"On behalf of the Law and Order Committee, we congratulate Judge Thompson and her family and we look forward to continuing to help the Judicial Branch to improve public safety and the Nation's judicial process," Delegate Yazzie stated.

Legislation seeking to change the “Navajo Nation” to “Diné Nation” tabled pending further evaluation

By Crystalayne Curley

On the last day of the 2017 Winter Council Session, the Council tabled Legislation No. 0395-16 until the Spring Council Session in April. The bill seeks to amend the Navajo Nation Code to change the name of the “Navajo Nation” to “Diné Nation.”

Following nearly two hours of discussion, legislation sponsor Council Delegate Jonathan Hale (Oak Springs, St. Michaels) agreed to the tabling motion to allow more time for the Navajo people to discuss and consider the name change.

“The intent of the legislation was to question how we identify ourselves. Then we question ourselves as Council Delegates, should this question be up to the Navajo people or the legislators? We also need to hear what our people think about this,” stated Delegate Hale.

Delegate Hale also pointed out that the legislation received no public comments during the five-day comment period.

Title II of the NNC provides a five-day comment period for the Navajo Nation Executive Branch, chapter governments, and the public to provide comments to legislations that will be considered by the Navajo Nation Council Standing Committees and Council.

“If we change the Nation’s name to ‘Diné Nation’, how much will it cost? Where will the money come from to make the change?” questioned Council Delegate Herman Daniels, Jr. (Shonto, Naa’tsis’Áán, Oljato, Ts’ah Bii Kin), referring to changes that would have to be made to supplies, equipment, etc.

“Also, many of our local chapter governments have changed their names to Navajo translated names but majority of the public still use the old names. For example, Navajo Mountain Chapter changed their name to ‘Naa’tsis’Áán Chapter,’ but people still identify the chapter as Navajo Mountain. Our Navajo people are use to the name ‘Navajo,’” added Delegate Daniels.

In support of the legislation, Council Delegate Nathaniel Brown (Chilchinbeto, Dennehotso, Kayenta) stated that the name change would allow the people to properly identify themselves as “Diné.”

“It may be true that we are known as ‘Navajo’ to the world but how do we identify ourselves in prayers? We identify ourselves as ‘Diné’ in front of the Holy People. The word ‘Navajo’ is a generic term that was given to us by the federal government. We constantly tell our children to learn the language and culture and allowing the name change will be a first step to revitalizing our language,” stated Delegate Brown.

According to Delegate Brown, many people interpret the word, “Diné,” as “The People,” but some Council members were concerned that the word “Diné” may associate with different meanings and interpretations.

“For example, the word ‘Diné’ may translate into ‘The People’ or refer to a male,” said Delegate Daniels.

After a lengthy debate among Council members, the Council approved a tabling motion by Council Delegate Kee Allen Begay, Jr. (Low Mountain, Many Farms, Nazlini, Tachee/Blue Gap, Tselani/Cottonwood) to allow more time for consideration.

“The legislation arises many questions. I believe that we need insight from the elders, chapters, and youth. We also need clear recommendations and explanation of the word ‘Diné,’” stated Delegate Begay.

The legislation states that if the change is approved it would go into effect in October 2017 to allow time to plan and implement the name change.

The Council approved to table the legislation until the Spring Council Session in April to hold a work session.

The Council extends their appreciation to the Department of Diné Education for hosting the 2017 Winter Council Session

The 23rd Navajo Nation Council convened for Winter Council Session from Jan. 23 to 27 at the Department of Diné Education auditorium in Window Rock, due to the ongoing renovation of the Council Chamber.

The renovation of the Council Chamber began in December and is tentatively scheduled to conclude in April.

“On behalf of the 23rd Navajo Nation Council, we extend our appreciation to the Department of Diné Education for their hospitality and thank all the people who attended the weeklong session,” stated Speaker LoRenzo Bates (Nenahnezad, Newcomb, San Juan, Tiis Tsoh Sikaad, Tse’Daa’Kaan, Upper Fruitland).
